

Prayer for Woman Wanting to be Married (from a chat in Iran)

Lord, thank you for loving your precious daughter. Thank you for being with her right now. We ask you to fill her mind and heart with the power and love of your Holy Spirit. Help us now to hear your voice and feel you near. Surround us with your light and truth. We need them to guide us now as we pray and as she lives her life for you.

Lord, we need your wisdom. You give it to us freely and we ask for it now. Show your precious daughter anything in her heart or life that needs healing and freedom before she gets married. You know and understand the deepest parts of her heart and mind and you care for your daughter, Father.

During the next few days and weeks and months reveal to her what she must learn about You, Jesus, and her own life. Help her to listen and obey whatever you tell her.

Bring into her life the people who can help her. Open her heart to listen and receive encouragement and correction. May she find freedom and joy and life as you continue to fill and heal her heart. Jesus, we trust you to know exactly what she needs to hear and we trust you with the timing (when she needs to hear). Give her a willing spirit and the power to WANT to follow your will, Jesus, and the power to DO your will.

Jesus, we need your wisdom to understand when you want your daughter to be married. Make it very clear to her and to those around her which man is to be her husband. We know this is a hard decision. We cannot see the future but you can, Jesus. So reveal your will to her. Help her to know what to look for in a man for marriage and what to stay away from. Build a love in her heart for the one you have chosen. Prepare her to be a godly wife and prepare her future husband to be a godly husband and father.

Jesus, these things are so big and so important. So we leave them in your hands and ask you to carry the burden. We come to you with faith and a thankful heart for the answers you will give her, Jesus. Come, Holy Spirit and flow through your daughter with the living water of your Spirit; with wisdom and truth and light and hope. Remove her fear.

We choose Jesus! We belong to Jesus! Amen.
